The Wedgwood story

Our story began in 1759 when our founder, Josiah Wedgwood I, aged just 29, started as an independent potter in Burslem, England. Fast forward over 260 years later and Wedgwood is still producing many of the materials Josiah invented, such as Jasper and Queen's Ware.

Mr. Wedgwood

Josiah Wedgwood is today remembered as the "Father of English Potters." His pioneer spirit, vigorous design policy, and his commitment to exacting standards of quality are values that remain at the heart of the brand today

Jasperware

Jasper, the most famous of Josiah's inventions, first appeared in 1774 after thousands of experiments. An unglazed vitreous fine stoneware, it was made in blue, green, lilac, yellow, black or white; sometimes one piece combined three or more of these colours. Upon these delicately coloured grounds would be applied the classical and contemporary reliefs which are still made today from moulds reproduced from the originals.

The iconic light blue jasper gave rise to the expression "Wedgwood Blue" and remains a recognizable Wedgwood signature worldwide.

Wedgwood craftsmanship

Since 1940, at the Wedgwood factory at Barlaston, England, modern technology combines with the ancient skills of throwing, modelling and decorating. These precious skills are preserved through a solid apprenticeship program, reintroduced to meet the growing global demand for some of Wedgwood's most exclusive signature pieces. Apprentices train for up to 10 years to become Master Craftspeople.

Over 260 Years Of Wedgwood

It's been over two centuries since Josiah Wedgwood began to inspire people all over the world to decorate and dress their tables with creativity and style.

Steeped in a rich heritage, over 260 wonderful years later, Wedgwood continues to be renowned for quality, innovative British design and timeless elegance.

Hitomi Hosono

Wedgwood meets Hitomi Hosono

The Wedgwood by Hitomi Hosono collection is an innovative creative collaboration marking our inaugural 'Artists in Residence' programme. Hitomi grew up in an area that she describes as 'the Stoke-on-Trent of Japan'. Her grandfather was a plaster and ceramics worker, so she remembers being surrounded by ceramics as a child. Harnessing our rich heritage and focusing on our most iconic of materials, Jasperware, Hitomi Hosono, one of the UK's leading ceramic artists has brought her outstanding talent, vision and delicate art to a stunning new interpretation of Josiah Wedgwood's most famous invention.

Hummingbirds are a marvel of nature, constantly moving in a flash of exotic colour and perpetual motion - more ethereal than earthly. This collection of vases and jars takes inspiration from these living miniature feathered jewels, offering a palette of striking colours on beautifully silky white fine bone china. Harking back to the mythical world of Makeig-Jones' Fairyland Lustre collection, there's an otherworldly quality to these pieces. Each intricately detailed item champions oversized blooms and playful hummingbirds and is expertly hand-finished with 22 carat gold. Dreamt up and made in England.

Folia

Nature, without the bugs

Nature can be good for the soul - from long walks in a forest with leaves crunching underfoot, the smell of pine needles on the air and the chirrup of birds, to simply catching some rays when dining alfresco. Fresh air and lush foliage are the inspirations for the Folia collection, each piece featuring organic lines and shapes that bring Mother Nature's soothing salve to your home. The natural designs of flowers in full bloom and verdant leaves create a relaxing simplicity, which can be mixed and matched with bolder patterns and colours in your home to develop a unique den of zen.

Classic Jasper

18th century craftmanship

Jasper, our most famous and enduring material, was invented by our founder Josiah Wedgwood in 1774 after over 5,000 experiments. An unglazed vitreous fine stoneware, it was made in blue, green, lilac, yellow, black or white, sometimes combining three or more of these colours in one item. The iconic light blue Jasper gave rise to the expression "Wedgwood Blue" and remains our signature colour worldwide. These expertly crafted pieces would then be decorated with the classical and contemporary bas reliefs which are still being made using reproductions of the original moulds. Today, our iconic Jasperware pieces continue to be made by our expert craftsmen at our factory in Barlaston, England.

Annuals

Celebrating annual traditions

Expertly handcrafted in Jasper at our Barlaston factory, these limited-edition Annual Trays and Plates follow two main themes: the Chinese zodiac and Greek gods and goddesses. Used as a way of indicating the day, month and year in a symbolic form, the Chinese zodiac has twelve branches, represented by twelve different animals: Rat, Ox, Tiger, Rabbit, Dragon, Snake, Horse, Sheep, Monkey, Rooster, Dog and Wild Boar. Each year, one of these animals, and a different Greek god, will be represented in our iconic Jasperware to celebrate the year ahead. Also discover our annual collection series inspired by the elements. Featuring four elegant pieces, beautifully cut in crystal material, use as barware, to display your favourite flowers or simply as an ornament in your home.

Wonderlust Waterlily

Inspired by the Wedgwood archive

Inspired by John Wedgwood's first botanical pattern, Josiah's eldest son was the founder of the RHS and a horticulturalist with an interest in the cultivation of exotic plants, designing the first Wedgwood Waterlily pattern in 1807. Found growing in the shallows of the Amazon river basin, surrounded by exotic birds and beasts, the flower featured in this updated heritage print sits beautifully on teaware and tableware pieces.

Take a tour through the Sapphire Garden and make friends with the native Rhesus Macaques. This print is heavily influenced by our archival patterns, featuring monkeys, Indian decorative designs and exotic colours.

Pink Lotus

A symbol of inner wisdom and the sanctity of daily life, the Pink Lotus is considered a sacred flower in the tropics of Asia. Typically found in marshy swamps, the Pink Lotus produces gigantic fragrant blossoms and leaves, a haven for wildlife.

Golden Parrot

A Brazilian native, the Golden Parrot can only be found in a small area south of the Amazon River. Set against a bright background of orange and blue foliage, this beautiful bird sits proudly in contrast to the bold pattern.

Menagerie

A menagerie is a curated collection of weird and wonderful creatures, which is what this design celebrates. Inspired by the maximalist trend, it features a mix of exotic flora and fauna.

Emerald Forest

Step into the vibrant wonderland of the Emerald Forest. Packed full of flora and fauna, this verdant pattern is reminiscent of a whimsical walk through an English woodland. Lose yourself in the lush foliage and bring a piece of soothing nature into your home.

Yellow Tonquin

Inspired by the "City of Chrysanthemums", the town of Xiaolan in the Guangdong province of China, Yellow Tonquin features bold, oversized Chrysanthemum blooms on a bright yellow background. A mixture of stylised florals, delicately drawn foliage and a pop of vivid yellow makes this pattern stand out from the crowd.

Crimson Jewel

A homage to Asian horticulture and the wonders of a garden in full bloom, Crimson Jewel heroes the beautiful waterlily, a flower important in many spiritual circles. As the waterlily opens to embrace sunlight in the day and closes as it draws to an end, the flower represents rebirth. Its bold red background and pops of luscious green make Crimson Jewel the perfect focal point.

Blue Pagoda

Pagodas were originally designed to house and protect relics and sacred writings. Blue Pagoda takes the majesty of these ancient structures and combines them with the relaxing qualities of a beautiful Japanese Acer garden. Considered a symbol of peace and serenity, the Japanese Acer represents balance and practicality.

Camellia

Native to Eastern and Southern Asia, Camellias found their way to Europe on a large scale through the East India Company as they are a key ingredient in the production of tea. The Camellia soon transformed to become a gift you'd give to a secret admirer. The light blue background and beautifully drawn camellias of this pattern emphasise the romantic nature of this oriental flower.

Rococo Flowers

The exuberance, elegance and lightness of this pattern encapsulate an art form originating in 18th century Paris, which typically included florals such as Peonies, Jasmine and Primroses. The pop of reds, blues and greens stands out on the silky white background of fine bone china to create a pattern that is romantic but unapologetically bold.

Helia

The birth of a new dawn

Inspired by Greek mythology and blended with Josiah Wedgwood's legacy, Helia celebrates renewal. Taking design notes from neoclassicism, and with colours drawing inspiration from Josiah's original Jasper trials, this collection is steeped in 260 years of English history and expert craftsmanship.

A modern classic, the silhouettes and bright golden accents that make up this collection deliver effortless contemporary style. Handcrafted at Barlaston (the home of Wedgwood), made from resilient fine bone china and finished with 22-carat gold lining, Helia is proof that Wedgwood's timeless design will always burn bright.

Renaissance Red

A Renaissance reborn

Sometimes, it's not just seeing that's believing - you have to actually handle an object to appreciate its true beauty. And the moment you pick up an Intaglio cup, you'll understand why... for its sumptuous tactile quality must be felt to be believed. Beautiful white fine bone china embossed with patterns reminiscent of ancient Rome and Greece will give any table a timelessly classic feel with a modern geometric edge. Inspired by a time that was all about elegance and lightness of touch, the exquisitely balanced proportions, harmonious symmetry and classical detailing of Intaglio offer an undeniably luxurious modern take on a bygone era.

Wild Strawberry

A wild strawberry summer

Feast your eyes on a collection inspired by delicious wild strawberries. Created in 1964, the iconic gold rim now graces afternoon tea the world over. A bestseller for a reason, this collection will help you recreate the feelings of a lazy English summer. Its finely drawn leaves and flowers transport you from your table to an English country garden, with the smell of cut grass in the air. In the distance, the thwack of a cricket ball can be heard as you immerse yourself in a world full of little luxuries and lashings of tea. Even if rain does occasionally stop play, it shall never put a halt to that most English of things; afternoon tea with strawberries, cream, and good company.

Florentine Turquoise

Steeped in fantasy

Discover a land where mythical creatures roam and fantastic flora blooms, a land situated somewhere between dinner time and afternoon tea. Featuring a wealth of delicately hand-rendered motifs set against the clarity of silky white fine bone china. Florentine Turquoise is a collection bathed in fantasy, where eagle-headed, lion-tailed griffins roar and plants beyond your wildest imagination take root. Finished with distinct black enamel banding, this pattern was first introduced in 1931, celebrating our love of myths, legends and fine bone china.

WEDGWOOD

Hibiscus

Experience the bold hues of Hibiscus

In some cultures, the hibiscus flower symbolises beauty, charm and youth. The Hibiscus collection ticks all of these boxes. First introduced in 2015, the pattern is inspired by an archival Wedgwood design from around 1810. Bold blue hues and lavish gold embellishments grow around the fine bone china body to create a living masterpiece that makes a bold statement on any dining table. The striking oriental blue is delicately highlighted with hand-applied gold detailing, creating a beautiful contrast.

Intaglio

Feeling is believing

Sometimes, it's not just seeing that's believing - you have to actually handle an object to appreciate its true beauty. And the moment you pick up an Intaglio cup, you'll understand why... for its sumptuous tactile quality must be felt to be believed. Beautiful white fine bone china embossed with patterns reminiscent of ancient Rome and Greece will give any table a timelessly classic feel with a modern geometric edge. Inspired by a time that was all about elegance and lightness of touch, the exquisitely balanced proportions, harmonious symmetry and classical detailing of Intaglio offer an undeniably luxurious modern take on a bygone era.

Sweet Plum

The sweetness of plums

Sweeter than a sugar plum and definitely more indulgent, the Sweet Plum collection offers a timeless, romantic pattern on a fine bone china body. Inspired by 18th century designs, Sweet Plum features soft floral patterns and delicate plum motifs, finished with a lustrous band of gold for that added touch of indulgence. Steeped in history but equally modern in design, the Sweet Plum collection adds a striking botanical touch to a mix and match table setting.

WEDGWOOD

Sheila Bridges

Offered to Fiskars Direct Retail Only

History in the Making

This collection features interior designer Sheila Bridges' much-admired design, Harlem Toile de Jouy. The design draws inspiration from traditional French toile, reimagined to celebrate a complex history and rich culture, while exploring stereotypes and allowing expression of politics and art.

Like Sheila, Josiah Wedgwood voiced his political stance through creativity and craft. His Slave Medallion, 'Am I Not a Man and a Brother', was sent to Benjamin Franklin to raise awareness of the anti-slavery movement. This collaboration sees Sheila's popular design meet Wedgwood's fine bone china, for a collection that celebrates the gift of art as a tool for storytelling and change.

Chinoiserie Green

Inspired by the 18th century British obsession for patterns from the Far East, Chinoiserie Green features an exquisite design of brightly coloured exotic flowers, lush foliage and tropical birds set against a bold backdrop of green and edged in platinum. Crafted from silky white fine bone china, this collection offers superior strength and a beautiful translucency for a dining set that's fit for the modern table.

WEDGWOOD

Vera Wang

Wedgwood meets Vera Wang

Vera Wang, a native New Yorker, understands women who embrace fashion and art. By age 23, Vera was the youngest ever Vogue fashion editor and stylist where she remained for 16 years before moving to Ralph Lauren as a design director. Since then, she has won numerous design awards and has expanded her collections to include fragrance, flowers, tableware, crystal and silver gifts. The Vera Wang and Wedgwood collaboration is a long-standing partnership since 2002, including many successful collections within the homeware and gifting categories.

Jardin

Vera Wang Jardin is directly influenced by Vera's personal collection of Oxalis pen and ink drawing art, as well as her love of nature. Vera's visit to the temples of West Lake in Hangzhou, China is the scene for the Chinese story "Butterfly Lovers". It was here that Vera found inspiration for Jardin with the lush surroundings, diverse trees and fragrant botanicals.

Lace

Inspired by Vera Wang's colourful corsages from her bridal collection, the Lace Platinum collection combines subtle indulgence with the simple beauty of silky white fine bone china. Decorated with a sophisticated pattern that weaves together a unique combination of tailored lace bands and delicate florals, this collection is perfect for adding a touch of lustrous platinum to your table setting.

Lace Gold

Inspired by the brightly coloured corsages from renowned New York designer Vera Wang's bridal collection, the Lace Gold collection is characterised by understated elegance. Decorated with a refined pattern that weaves together a unique combination of tailored lace bands and delicate florals, gold details bring a touch of lustrous opulence to any dining occasion.

Venato Imperial

The Vera Wang Venato Imperial tableware collection is classic and timeless, showcasing natural beauty through a pattern that mimics unrefined marble. Natural marble-like grain and stone patterns create the illusion of stoneware pieces, whereas the beautiful translucency and silky white colour shows that this collection is indeed crafted from our high-quality fine bone china.

Grosgrain

Inspired by the subtle romantic touches that renowned New York designer Vera Wang uses to trim her world-famous bridal gowns, the Grosgrain collection showcases beautifully translucent fine bone china with elegant and graceful design details. Decorated with lustrous platinum border trims reminiscent of delicate needle lace, this collection brings sophistication and sensual elegance to any dining occasion.

This collection is a celebration of eternal romance, featuring contemporary shapes and a ringed border for a sophisticated look.

Infinity

The Vera Wang Infinity collection for Wedgwood represents the eternity of love. The braided, loop-knotted rope symbol, free of beginning or end, appears in raised detail throughout the collection as a reminder of love's unerring endurance. Toasting flutes, photo frames and piggy banks are created in silver-plate for a beautiful mirrored finish. Each piece comes packaged in a gift box to make the perfect gift for any occasion.

Grosgrain

Inspired by the subtle romantic touches that renowned New York designer Vera Wang uses to trim her world-famous bridal gowns, the Grosgrain collection showcases beautiful silver gifts with elegant and graceful design details. Decorated with lustrous border trims reminiscent of delicate needle lace, this collection brings sophistication and sensual elegance to any home.

WEDGWOOD

Edme Plain

Aristocratic style

A collection so aristocratic it should be wearing a monocle and top hat, Edme is inspired by Georgian trends and tastes of the time. First introduced in 1908, this design is based on 18th century patterns from the Wedgwood archives. A recurring laurel motif simply and stylishly decorates the earthenware body, creating a creamy blank canvas to mix and match with bolder, more colourful patterns.

Columbia Sage Green

Stylish sage choices

Inspired by the Columbia Gold pattern, this Sage Green collection features the mythical Griffin, an animal with the head of an eagle and the body of a lion, a creature (legend has it) that protected gold. Due to its bravery and beauty, it is a noble motif often found in royal and aristocratic coats of arms. The original designs of the two griffins facing each other dates back to 19th century Wedgwood pattern books. The exquisite sage green tones and the combination of the gold griffin and rose accentuates the dignity and beauty of this pattern.

Festivity

A celebration of simplicity

The Festivity collection celebrates the bountiful harvests of the festival season. This popular design is finished with a three-dimensional pattern by embossing an expressive and asymmetrical motif of overflowing fruits and flowers, tied together with a rope, which is a usual decoration for festivals. This versatile collection, coloured here in a simple ivory tone, is perfect for using everyday as it is both microwave and dishwasher safe.
